Do You Really See?

*Do you really see each morning when you awake
The many beautiful things that God did create?
So many people in the routine of living
That they don't see all the beauty that God has given.*

*Do you really see the birds as they fly by
The beauty of the mountains as they rise so high
The peace in the valleys as they lie below
And the glistening of the new fallen snow.*

*Do you really see your mate as God meant it to be,
As you made those sacred vows to be one until eternity
Do you cherish the days as you grow old together,
As your love grows stronger through all kinds of weather.*

*Do you really see your child as a precious piece of clay
That God gave to you to mold and shape them a little each day,
Carefully guiding them over life's troubled way,
So as they grow older they will not stray.*

*Do you really see God's redeeming plan
That He made available to every man?
Or are you too busy to take the time to look
Of all of the redeeming plan in His Whole Book.*

*Do you really see and understand, my friend,
That we must die as appointed to all men?
We only have to reflect upon the days that have past and gone
And realize how many of our loved ones are in an eternal home.*

*Do you really see that we should slow down our fast living
And spend more time with each other loving and giving,
Getting to know each other personally in the family of God,
Then we could help each other better as on this earth we trod.*

Do you really see?
